Juniors Playing Seniors at another club

Junior Cricketers registered at one club may wish to play Senior Cricket at another RDCA club. This is possible and requires the club that the junior will play Seniors with arranging to transfer the player to their list.

A Junior player can play Juniors at one club and Seniors at another under the MyCricket system. After the transfer the player will appear on both clubs lists.

Transfer Player

The Transfer process must be completed by the club wanting the player i.e the senior club.

Mode: Teams.

The Permits & Clearances information can be found under the Players menu.

- Click on the Players menu;
- Click on the Permits & Clearances option;
- Click on the Player Transfer option;

The Transfer Person screen will be displayed.
