

From the Trove website, newspaper article from "The Argus" dated Friday 4th October 1935 (page 3)

OTHER DISTRICTS – RINGWOOD

In recognition of service rendered in the last two years as mayor and mayoress of the Borough of Ringwood, Councillor and Mrs. A. Temple Miles were entertained by Councillors and officers of the borough in the Town Hall on Wednesday afternoon. The Mayor, Councillor J.K. McCas skill presided and spoke of the excellent work done by Councillor Miles as Mayor during the first three years of the Borough's existence and the subsequent two years just completed. Mrs. Miles was complimented on her work as president of the ladies' benevolent society and the women's section of the public assistance committee. The chairman presented the guests with a clock, the case made of figured blackwood, an exact replica of the Ringwood soldiers memorial clock tower. Councillor A. Temple Miles expressed the keen appreciation of Mrs. Miles and himself of the splendid gift and thanked his colleagues and members of staff for their valued assistance during his term of office as mayor.

The Ringwood and District Cricket Association elected officers as follows: President Mr. S. Lennard; Vice Presidents Messrs. F. Clota, J. Goodall, P.V. Edie, J. Finger and E. Pegler. Committee Messrs. P.V. Edie, P. James, R. Storey, J. Goodall and E. Pegler. Secretary and Treasurer Mr. C.E. Sleeman, assistant secretary Mr. J. Goodall; auditor Mr. A. Dwight. In recognition of services rendered to the association Mr. F. Clota was elected a life member.

RINGWOOD. In recognition of service rendered in the last two years as mayor and mayoress of the Borough of Ringwood, Councillor and Mrs. A. Temple Miles were entertained by councillors and officers of the borough in the town hall on Wednesday afternoon. The mayor (Councillor J. K. McCas skill) presided and spoke of the excellent work done by Councillor Miles as mayor during the first three years of the borough's existence and the subsequent two years' service just completed. Mrs. Miles was complimented on her work as president of the ladies' benevolent society and the women's section of the public assistance committee. The chairman presented the guests with a clock, the case made of figured blackwood, an exact replica of the Ringwood soldiers' memorial clock tower. Councillor A. Temple Miles expressed the keen appreciation of Mrs. Miles and himself of the splendid gift, and thanked his colleagues and members of the staff for their valued assistance during his term of office as mayor. The Ringwood District Cricket Association elected officers as follow: President, Mr. S. Lennard; vice-presidents, Messrs. F. Clota, J. Goodall, P. V. Edie, J. Finger, and E. Pegler; committee, Messrs. P. V. Edie, P. James, R. Storey, J. Goodall, and E. Pegler; secretary and treasurer, Mr. C. E. Sleeman, assistant secretary, Mr. J. Goodall; auditor, Mr. A. Dwight. In recognition of services rendered to the association Mr. F. Clota was elected a life-member.